This video contains stories from three characters. The story of the first character, Nam, in the video above is as follows:

----

Before coming to Japan, I was very worried.

I didn't know much about what kind of country Japan was. I was scared of going to an unfamiliar country.

But now, after talking to people at my company and in the walking club, I understand a little better.

Sharing delicious food together helps you become friends.

If you are kind to someone, they will be kind to you in return.

Wherever you go, there are good people and bad people.

It's the same in Japan and in Vietnam.
